

Shelf Life Declaration

We at Sanner GmbH define „Shelf Life“ as the storage period during which a product shall maintain its operational characteristics, taking into account the manufacturer's specifications. If unopened and stored under conditions mentioned below, our standard Desiccant Closures, Desiccant Capsules and Desiccant Packs (hereinafter the „Products“) come with a warranted Shelf Life of

- 3 (three) years, if packed in aluminium-bags, respectively of
- 6 (six) months, if packed in PE-bags, starting from the last day of the manufacturing period of the respective production lot.

According to their specifications, our Products must be stored indoors in a clean and dry place, in their original unopened packaging, at temperatures between 10°C and 30°C and otherwise according to GMP recommendations.

This Shelf Life Declaration and Warranty only applies to Products

- that have been manufactured at our manufacturing sites in Bensheim (Germany) or Budapest (Hungary); each Product's manufacturing site is mentioned in its specification or documentation; and
- that are not subject to customer specifications or characteristics (only standard products); shelf life for non-standard products may be agreed upon separately only.

Limited Warranty

Under this limited warranty we shall replace any Product free of charge that did not maintain its operational characteristics during its Shelf Life as defined above.

The delivery terms of such replacements shall be identical to the terms of the original delivery, including transfer of risk, bearing of shipping costs, etc. (for example: „ex works“ delivery means „ex works“ replacement).

This limited warranty is granted by Sanner GmbH separately and independently from any statutory or contractual warranty claim the customer may have vis-a-vis Sanner GmbH.

This Shelf Life Declaration and Warranty shall be subject to German law, precluding the applicability of UN sales law (CISG), and the conflict of laws rules of German law. The sole legal venue for all disputes out of and/or in connection with this Shelf Life Declaration and Warranty shall be the registered company venue of Sanner GmbH, currently in Darmstadt, Germany.

In an event of a shelf life issue, please contact your respective Sanner account manager and/or our order management team immediately
